Gains Victory Over Hopewell Sep 13, 2003 Sept. 13, 2003 PIKEVILLE, Ky. - From the very first basket of the game, everything that you could say about the Lady Cougars had an air of confidence and expectation. Two days after being swept in a home series by Henderson College, following a season-opening 88-80 loss to Murray State, the Lady Cougars seized on the confidence of the frenzied South Central Kentucky crowd and felt a lot closer to the Mountaineers that they did the previous week. "We were much better today," said Lady Cougar head coach Jennifer Fisher, "defensively, we played with more intensity, played with more energy and I think they played well, that is my opinion." The Lady Cougars, in a sense, had to start all over again. Henderson entered L.C.G. as the lower seed, but the Lady Cougars were able to look past that. From the very beginning, the Lady Cougars seemed to have some kind of fearlessness that hadn't been there in the first two home games of the season. The Lady Cougars (4-1) played with confidence and intensity, grabbing all the momentum and forcing the Mountaineers (1-3) into a multitude of turnovers. "The team had confidence," said Henderson head coach Dale Grubb. "We had a sense of camaraderie, and hopefully that's something we can bring back for the rest of the season." Jasmine Juarez started the Lady Cougars' offense with an old-fashioned three pointer, dropping in the Lady Cougars' first points of the game just before the tip-off.

After some tough shooting in the first half, the Lady Cougars began to hit shots and opened up a 6-3 advantage before halftime. It was a point guard's day for the Lady Cougars. Janae Reid was in a running duel with Grayson McDonald. And after McDonald shot just 2-5 for the Mountaineers, Reid answered by going 9-11 from the floor, as did the rest of the Lady Cou f30f4ceada
