I have been a math teacher for 9 years now and I am really starting to get sick of the word Anglos. It is so degrading to non-Anglos to call us Anglos. Is this not offensive to our heritage?Anglos is meant to be a respectful term for white people. If you look at the Spanish and the British it's pretty easy to tell which one is "anglos". Anyway, I am Hispanic, and I have worked at a lot of places and I don't have time to listen to my kids and their racist b.s, so I know it happens more than not. Most Latin@s here are American and there is no room for them in the areas they need to be in to do their jobs. Sorry if I am being rude, but when I'm teaching I have to be professional. If I don't get much work done, and a white person is asking me to do something, I just tell them I have to do my job. Is it as bad as blacks being called "Negro"? It's not as bad as it sounds. When I was growing up, we were all Anglos. Did you know you can't use the phrase "What are you in the mood for"? That came from England. If you don't believe me, look it up. But don't worry, that word is used for blacks as much as whites.
