Features:..The John Lee Hooker Memorial Festival also features a gospel concert and an open air jam, among others. It is held annually in October. Like every year, it is hosted by Kofi Burbridge. 2017: first anniversary of the festival History The festival is a chance for people to get together and get down to jam with the greats of this art form. A few of these jam sessions were recorded at the festival to celebrate the music and its history and to pay homage to and celebrate the legacy of artist John Lee Hooker. Those who like their work to have a certain vibe, each year they decided to mix up all of the genres that are there, such as blues, soul, funk, rhythm and blues, jazz, and rock. Not just John Lee Hooker, many other soul/R&B legends will be featured during the festival. With such an experience, one gets to hear a more varied range of musicians which is an advantage as many find their way to soul music by way of blues. Organized by Kofi Burbridge John Lee Hooker would have been 96 on his birthday on October 29, 2016. To pay tribute to this great soul singer, his daughter Jody took it upon herself to organize the first ever John Lee Hooker festival in his honor. She got in touch with Kofi Burbridge and together, they set to work. They wanted to create an event where anyone would feel welcome and at home to just listen to music. They wanted to help the people become familiar with the great man and his art. Music At the John Lee Hooker Memorial Festival you can expect to hear a wide range of music genres, all represented by artists who call themselves "Soul Jazz". Over the course of the festival you will hear soul, blues, funk, and more. All the genres are represented by musicians who play with a soulful twist. Artists like Dion, Galarraga and Blue Combo are part of the Jam Sessions. These sessions take place at the John Lee Hooker Memorial Festival and allows the audience to experience the music up close and personal with live performances and jam sessions.
