So we have left it for the district court to determine this important question, should it ever arise. 19 The judgment of the district court is reversed and the cause remanded for further proceedings consistent herewith. 1 Negligence is a federal question but we look to the 'law of the place' where the wrong occurred. K. L. Driesner & Sons v. New England Gypsum Co., 1961, 355 U.S. 169, 78 S.Ct. 216, 2 L.Ed.2d 178 2 No such assurance was given to Callow. An officer of the corporation was present in the courtroom but did not tell the jury that the contract was between Tom and K. L. Driesner & Sons 3 9 Wright & Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure, 1846, p. 543 4 Under the doctrine of forum non conveniens the court may decline to exercise the jurisdiction conferred upon it if it appears that the convenience of the parties and the ends of justice will be better subserved in another forum. Such decision is committed to the sound discretion of the trial judge. Gulf Oil Corp. v. Gilbert, 1947, 330 U.S. 501, 67 S.Ct. 839, 91 L.Ed. 1055. See also, U.S. Silica Co. v. M/V Walter E. Heller, 1 Cir. 1958, 257 F.2d 661 5 For a detailed discussion of the development of the maritime lien see Gilmore & Black, Admiralty (1957) pp. 639-664 6 While we take the position here that the critical issue is ownership of the oil, not the title thereto, it is highly unlikely that the lien claimants will be able to establish their ownership of the oil-- the only tangible property in the case-- particularly since the jury may well decide that the oil was consumed in the collision 7 See: Lawson, Maritime Lien Law (1927

HR Annual Leave is a useful utility which allows you to centralize, schedule and organize the annual leave days for your company. The tool allows you to create an employee sheet in which to include, modify or remove the suggested period of leave for each team member individually. Database tool HR Annual Leave is a Microsoft Access database utility which allows you to manage and modify the entries at any time. You simply need to enter the names of the employees and the individual periods of leave that they request. You may enter the type of leave, then let the utility calculate the total number of days and generate a pie chart. The chart indicates the types of leave in corresponding amounts and calculates the number of days that remain unassigned. Moreover, you may easily enter new employees' names, as well as specify their job title and department/section in which they operate. Share the leave plan The Annual Leave Record contains all the employees' requests for leave and the approval indicator. The table displays all the entries, but you may print a report that depicts the leaves approved within a certain period. You may also send the sheets by email to one or more recipients. The application requires Microsoft Outlook, in order to send emails. Adding new entries to the table is as easy as typing a name in the dedicated field. The Leave Allocation must be completed in advance, for the entire year, since it establishes how many leave days are available for the entire company. Employee database manager HR Annual Leave also allows you to manage subsequent databases, such as job titles, employees' email addresses and their departments. You may easily customize the database of jobs and departments in your company, then fill in the complete employee profile in the Annual Leave tab. HR Annual Leave Description: Every year, employees are paid on leave days that have been previously requested. Your company needs a program that allows employees to input their desired leave days. The tool allows you to create a database containing the names of all the employees and the leave days, with which to build a leave schedule. A user interface allows you to create an employee sheet, where all the employees' leave days may be entered separately and modified or removed. Each employee can be associated with a job title, department or section. The spreadsheet is generated based on the approved leave days. A pie chart shows the remaining requested leave days and can be easily modified. The program can be sent to the local network
