Q: How to deal with a string that starts with a hyphen in bash I'm trying to write a script with a string that starts with a hyphen, but bash complains that -- is an invalid option at the beginning of the string. Is there a way to do this or should I use a different char in bash? Thanks in advance. A: You can always use: string1="-this-is-a-string" string2="---some-strings" I'm not sure if there's a special issue for starting with a hyphen, but it's quite safe to use strings for this. A: - is an invalid option for the shell, so you could fix it by escaping it, like this: user@shell:~$ my_string=$(echo -n "--update" | sed -e's/-//g') user@shell:~$ echo $my_string --update Pages Thursday, April 10, 2014 Tutorial: Tree Leaf and Edge Pattern Since I am taking classes this weekend at the Wilton Store and learning some basic techniques, I thought it would be a great time to post this tutorial on the leaf and edge pattern. I decided to make a Halloween version for this month's color, so I used both types of leaves in the pattern. For the leaves, I ran a foam 17's or 30 on both sides of the fabric to create the effect of a splattered painted fabric. Le

[GAME STORY: While you wander the Lands Between as a Tarnished One, the people who call themselves Elves, but are in truth half-godlike beings, gaze upon your naked form. You regain your body and will begin to fight against the evil of the Elden Ring in the service of your Lord, Solliia. The game story begins now. MISSION - Grux Observes Blood Rite An atmosphere filled with blood is one which once gave birth to the present world. Seeking out the very source of this redness, you descend into a dark palace. Do you know the answer? "MISSION" Destined to succeed your Lord, Solliia, you enter the heights of the Tower of Infinity. Can you keep Solliia and the people close to you in mind? "MISSION" "Are You A Fool. You Stand Here?" The Tarnished One. A man with a face like stone stares at me with unflinching eyes. "No. I am no fool. I know that because I am a Tarnished One, but if you don't let go of my arm, I'm leaving." "What? You want to leave? Come right back!" I growl and lunge. Before long, the surrounding area has become a scene of violence. "Well, well. It seems that I've been summoned after all. "The Thunderstorm of Her Fury!" I've come to understand what the Tarnished Ones call the loud thundering sound that lets humans know they'
