ArcView is a flexible, easy-to-use geographic information system (GIS) client and business application that delivers spatial information on maps, tables, and networks. The application.Alma Cogan Alma Cogan (April 13, 1885 – September 17, 1969) was an American actress of stage and film. Biography Cogan was born Alma Hirschfeld in New York City, the daughter of Louis and Miriam (Neumann) Hirschfeld, Jewish immigrants from Poland. (Her paternal grandfather, P. L. Hirschfeld, was a Reform rabbi in Kishinev, Russia, from 1868 to 1870 and from 1878 to 1897). Her father was a theatrical performer. At age 12, she joined her family's acting troupe, and she made her Broadway debut at age 17. She retired from the stage in 1925 to marry stockbroker Sam Cogan (1880–1962), a highly successful businessman who had been married once before, but had no children. They lived in New York City. Cogan continued to act occasionally into the 1930s. In 1928, she appeared in a Mayfair Pictures film named The Kid, directed by Erich Von Stroheim. The film was not a success. She was a sister to dancer Myrtle Cogan and actress Charlotte "Chick" Cogan. Cogan died in 1969 in Manhattan, New York.
