French. 25.40 MB....This week's Torah portion, Haazinu, is one that many people put off because it is a long and tedious parasha, where the important part is postponed until the end. However, the great luminaries of Jewish Law, the Gerim and the Rishonim, who lived centuries ago, studied every detail and found that each and every word and even the names of each individual mentioned there is in and of itself a legal and Jewish matter. The perfect legal and ethical framework and guideline for a life lived in accordance with the Torah.
